condition in Russia is doubtless in the face of the existing generally concerning the situation in that country. It needs nothing more positively a strong spiritual force that be able to educate and lead its misguided people. No doubt that the place of Bolshevism is only because the Orthodox was clearly failed to achieve its effective influence.

BAPTISTS FIGHT Y. M. C. A.

The Baptists have declared war on the Young Men's Christian Association and the Western Recorder, the official Baptist organ, says that the Y. M. C. A. type of religion will not save the world, nor would it even save society. The writer further says that the Y. M. C. A. scissors and mutilates the Bible in its meetings and should be opposed by the Baptists because of its work overseas, dancing, Sunday desecration and even dancing at home. But the bitter pill which the Baptist organ raves over is the fact that the Baptist ministers were refused full away in the war work and takes the following fling at Catholics, Jews and Protestants: "When Dr. Mott, the chief secretary of the Y. M. C. A., with Dr. Speer, Priest Burke, Col. Cutler, the Jew, and two others planned out and divided the war work the Baptists were left out." Then again we are told by the pious writer that "the gospel can not be trusted to the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross, nor the Salvation Army."

REMARKS OF DUTIES.

In his own name and the name of the American hierarchy, Cardinal Gibbons closes the pastoral with the following significant reminder, which every Catholic should study and heed:

"We have thus set before you, dearly beloved, the more striking features of our situation, its opportunities and most urgent needs. We have indicated the principles which must shape and develop our Catholic life in order that we may render of effective service to the world and to our country. Let us now more remind you of your essential duties. The first, the duty of prayer for all men, by which the God of Mercy to direct their hearts in the way of peace and concord. The second, that you show forth in your own lives, in your homes, your social intercourse and your dealings with others, the beauty of our Catholic faith, its power to strengthen the soul in trial, its efficacy for the accomplishment of the duties which charity and justice prescribe. Doing these things, you will advance the Kingdom of God upon earth and give honor to our Lord Jesus Christ."

CONSISTENT AMERICANISM.

Papers like the Courier-Journal are forever flaunting their Americanism and ready to condemn everyone who does not agree with them on extreme measures. But they are notoriously silent when there is a possible difference between America and dear old England. The attempted sale of the German liners to a British syndicate by the American Government has never been mentioned by the Tory press, despite the fact that according to the terms of sale John Bull would get these ships at a sacrifice price, and the purchasing syndicate were on record as preferring British crews.

UNIVERSAL TRAINING.

In the face of an indorsement of the principle by President Wilson and his appeal to take no party action against the Democrats of the House of Representatives last week received an overwhelming majority by this Congress. A resolution opposing universal military training was 104 ayes to 74 nays. With the Democrats opposed and the Republicans all hope of universal training legislation now goes glimmering. Perhaps just as well. Doubt that the sentiment now is now strongly opposed by the military service, and the unpleasant memories of the war have passed away. It will be a pity if the proposal received such a reverse vote at the Democratic caucus. As the True Voice we need not flatter ourselves with all danger of war has passed our country. Even though the war may be so easily should be ratified with a practical possibility. The writer who think that war has been forever will continue to be a danger to the world. The writer who think that war has been forever will continue to be a danger to the world.

Every Catholic should comply with the American hierarchy's request that all the faithful receive holy communion tomorrow.

of preparedness is universal military training. Another is a large standing army. We have rejected the first method and we are not enthusiastic over the second. It is not unlikely that in five years we will be back where we were before we entered the war.

WILSON A DISCARD.

The latest outbreak of President Wilson in forcing Secretary Lansing out of the Cabinet has aroused a feeling of resentment against the historical methods of the President, and Democratic leaders and press alike condemn his action. President Wilson refuses to bow to the wishes of the people who rebuked his League of Nations pet at the last election, and the stand of the Senate in opposing the ratification of the League has aroused his resentment so that he is venting his spleen on everyone in sight.

SPEECH FROM THRONE.

The speech of King George from the throne referred to conditions in Ireland and promised a "settlement" of the Irish question. Evidently the so-called settlement is to be arrived at not by consulting the Irish people—but by a Parliament in which Ireland is without representation at present. It is a one-sided affair and it will be imposed on Ireland much as the Kaiser imposed his rule on Belgium during the war. To call it a settlement is to dignify it above its merits. It is in keeping, though, with the assumption that one nation has the right to rule another. How far from the ideals for which we were told the world war was fought! What becomes of self-determination and the liberty of small nations?

HEAVEN FORBID.

Secretary Baker believes that unless we ratify the treaty and League of Nations we shall forfeit the "spiritual leadership" of the world. This of course assumes that the "spiritual leadership" (whatever that means) is at present and has been since the armistice in our hands. Now it may be asked what has our "spiritual leadership" done for the world? Has it brought liberty and peace to subject peoples? Has it tended to make the great nations more tolerant of the weak? Has it tempered justice with mercy? Under our "spiritual leadership" Egypt has lost her liberties, Persia has had her sovereignty impaired, India has been harassed and persecuted in an aggravated manner, China has been robbed of her finest province, the tricky Jap put on an equality with red-blooded Americans, and the American reduced to one-sixth the value of an Englishman in international eyes. This is what our "spiritual leadership" of the Baker brand has done. Do red-blooded Americans want more of it? Heaven forbid.

DON'T LEND.

What do patriotic Americans think about this? A "streamer" headline in the London Star of recent date reads: "Don't Buy American Goods." The article argues that England should now confine its trade with America to selling, and to buy everything possible from Germany and Austria. America having pulled England's chestnuts out of the fire is not to be considered—unless she is willing to lend the money to England with which to do her marketing with Germany and Austria!

Organized labor has thrown its hat into the political ring, not as a party, but as a sort of balance of power. Labor can do much if it will just hold itself in leash a trifle. There are many men of sound judgment in the ranks. Let labor rid itself of the radical and all will be well.

We congratulate the Catholic Sentinel, of Portland, Ore., on its fiftieth anniversary number, one of real merit and really valuable reading matter, much of it historical. May its next half century prove still more successful.

Every Catholic should comply with the American hierarchy's request that all the faithful receive holy communion tomorrow.

HOLOCAUST OF MORTGAGES.

The mortgage of $23,000 on Old St. Mary's church, San Francisco, was burned the first Sunday of this month at noon. This happy holocaust was made possible by the receipt of $25,000 from an unnamed donor.

LENT OBSERVED HERE.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season, was observed in the local Catholic churches with impressive and solemn services that were largely attended both morning and evening. From now until Pas-ter Sunday, April 4, there will be Lenten services during the week of which there will be exchange of pastors and sermons by visiting priests.

It is to be expected that every Catholic will receive holy communion tomorrow and also attend the Lenten devotions in their respective churches.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

In solving our educational problems and in widening the scope of our charities, says the pastoral letter of the Catholic hierarchy, we look with confidence to our Catholic organizations. They have given innumerable proofs of their zeal by defending the rights of the church, by protecting young men and women against moral dangers, and by unifying their efforts for the promotion of worthy causes. They will now, in the same Catholic spirit, put forth their energies in spreading sound ideas of social and industrial reform. For these are urgently needed, not only for the guidance of our immigrants, but also for the checking and correction of tendencies which are stirring up discord among our native-born citizens.

STREET RAILWAY REPORT.

The report of retiring President

Thos. J. O'Leary to the street railway stockholders is as follows:

The Louisville Railway Company, herewith its annual report of the year ending December 31, 1919.

You are familiar with the facts in regard to the strike which occurred the late summer and early fall of 1918.

We give below the income account from 1917-1918, the year before the war, and 1918, last year. This is shown in parallel columns:

Gross

1918. 1917.

Gross revenue $3,537,234 10 $3,078,296 07

Operating expense 2,794,439 28 1,561,580 24

Earnings from operation 742,794 82 1,516,715 83

Less taxes 366,000 00 315,051 08

Net earnings $376,794 82 $1,201,664 75

Other income 105,297 39 182,000 51

Gross income $482,092 21 $1,383,665 26

Less interest on bonds and discount on notes sold 639,597 00 621,750 00

Net income $157,504 79 $761,915 26

Dividends 670,650 00

Surplus income $157,504 79 $91,265 26

If depreciation had been charged for 1919 would have been $5,000 00 $5,000 00

$242,504 79 $96,265 26

Deficit 1919. $242,504 79

Surplus 1918. $96,265 26

Substantially all of the item "Other income" in the statement is derived from the net operation of the interurban lines.

While gross revenue, despite the strike, showed an increase in three years of nearly half a million dollars, there was an increase of nearly $1,125,000 in expenses, besides an increase in taxes and interest, and a decrease in other income (L. & I. net earnings), therefore the net result was a decrease in the net income of more than $200,000.

Cost $327,000 Net.

It is difficult to give in exact figures what the strike cost the company. On the one hand its revenues were diminished, but on the other the expenses of operation were less.

What would have been the revenue if there had been no strike? This can of course, only be an estimate. That the expenses were less comes from the fact that during the last of the time few cars were operated, and not for a number of weeks were normal operations resumed. But this again is at best an estimate. The total loss, however, we can estimate. It is that the strike cost about $327,000

net. If we are right in this then the net result of the strike was a loss of $327,000. During the same period the net result of the interurban lines has been $847,344 (comparison is made with the period of 1917).

Since 1916 the compensation paid to employees has increased 87 1/2 per cent, and taxes 12 1/2 per cent.

Dividends Warded.

The last dividend paid on the common stock was July 1, 1918; the last dividend on the preferred stock was

October 1, 1918. The preferred stock is 5 per cent, cumulative, and on stock 10 per cent. There will be an accumulation of 7 1/2 per cent.

The amount necessary to pay a 5 per cent dividend on $1,500,000 of preferred stock is $175,000. The amount necessary to pay a 10 per cent dividend on $3,323,600 of common stock is $332,360.

There is undoubtedly a considerable amount to be spent for deferred maintenance. In order to pay a dividend on the common stock of 5 per cent, and on the common stock of 10 per cent, it is obvious that it will be necessary to increase the gross earnings by at least 20 per cent.

To give some idea of what has been the effect on public opinion of the increased expenses of the company, it may be stated that the following is substantially the market price of all the securities of the company as of January 1, 1917, and January 1, 1920:

Common stock, Louisville 1917. 1920.

WHAT WE NEED.

Touching upon our present situation and needs, the Catholic Church points to the fact that though the war is ended, our country is not yet restored to its normal condition. On every side there is unrest and agitation. The conflict of class with class makes progress impossible. It threatens to undo the splendid things which the union of all our people accomplished. It is important into our country the very evils which brought disaster on Europe. If America is to be preserved, for its own sake and for the sake of humanity, a remedy must be found for our present situation.

This is not a time for makeshifts. The facts are before us, plainly and roughly. They can not be set aside with more expedients or formalities that smooth the surface of things, but leave the virus beneath. Rightly or wrongly, the movements which are shaking the foundation of order come out of men's souls. They embody a demand for right. They may be stayed for a time or diverted; but if, in keeping with American principles, order is to rest on the willingness of the people and their free co-operation, their souls must be reached. They must be trained to think rightly and to do as they think. Let us not deceive ourselves in this matter. Ignorance is an evil; as such it must be removed. But it is not the only evil. What we have chiefly to fear is educated intelligence devoid of moral principle—the man who uses his knowledge to abuse his freedom. This is the dangerous type. To continue its production or allow it to multiply would be the part of wisdom.

AWAY DURING LENT.

Four of the Passionist fathers of the Sacred Heart Retreat will be engaged in the mission fields of Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio and Louisiana during the whole of Lent. As a result, there will be no Lenten discourses delivered by the fathers in the city as heretofore. Those desiring to assist at Lenten services conducted by the Passionists will have to visit the monastery chapel on the Newburg road every Sunday afternoon.

LENTEN MISSION.

A Lenten mission, conducted by the Rev. Father Isidore, an able and eloquent Passionist missionary, was opened on Ash Wednesday at St. Augustine's church, Thirtieth and Broadway, and will continue until Sunday night, February 22. Rev. Martin Frankengerger is the pastor and expects that much good will result from the mission. Services will

ANOTHER LIE EXPOSED.

In a letter from P. C. Harris, Adjutant General of the United States Army, made public by the Friends of Irish Freedom National Bureau of information, statements reflecting upon the loyalty and patriotism of Americans of Irish blood who served in the Union army in the Civil War, which are being given wide distribution in all parts of the United States, are refuted. The statements purport to give accurate figures of Civil War desertions by racial groups, which reflect upon the soldiers of Irish blood. The Adjutant General wrote:

"The whole number of soldiers of any given nativity in the service during the Civil War is not known, and not even an approximately correct statement of either the number or the percentage of desertions of any given nativity can be based upon such data as are available. When it is understood that the War Department is the sole custodian of the records of the armies in service during the Civil War, and that the department has never made a statement or estimate of the number of desertions of any particular nativity during that war, it will be realized that any statements that may have been published, purporting to show the number or percentage of deserters by nativity, are entitled to no credence whatever."

The false figures are being circulated in printed leaflets, issued anonymously, and which appeared almost simultaneously in such widely separated points as Worcester, Mass., Chicago and Denver.

UNITY VS. MACKIN.

A basketball game will be staged at Mackin Council club house next Thursday evening that promises to be a thriller, as it brings together the star Unity team of New Albany, which has been heating all corners, and Mackin Council's basketball team, which also has been making a reputation for itself. The preliminary game will be between the Mackin Seconds team and the Lucky Strikes.

DEFEAT FOR MANUAL.

The Manual High School and St. Xavier College basketball teams staged an exciting and hard-fought contest Tuesday night, the Green and Gold boys winning by a 25 to 16 count. The Saints did not fall into their usual stride until the second half, when Crawford played in and broke up Manual's famous five-man defense. Both teams played with "pep," and defeat for the Crimson surprised their followers.
